WEST DULUTH, MINN.,

Mr. J. J. Sullivan, Warden
Stillwater Prison
Stillwater, Minn.,

RECEIVED
AUG 29 1921
Minnesota State Prison

Dear Sir:

Am writing you in regard to one of the inmates, Louis Dondino, whom I have known for some years as a hard working young man.

He was convicted under the supposition, that he was implicated in the lynching of three negroes in this city, in June 1920, following a supposed rape case.

We who know him feel that he was not at least directly guilty, and that if he were paroled, he would make a good law abiding citizen.

Respectfully Yours,

D. Graham
